

Bombing Capitals

Air Force Has Pushed Up
Paris And Rome
And Air Force bombers have their deadly striking power in flights into the heart of Ger-and southern Italy but two targets—Paris and Rome—been left alone.
Political considerations are the detriment to bombing either

The whole strategy of bombing has been to strike key objectives and strike them. It is felt that the military of attacks on either Rome or would be far outweighed by effect of world opinion. The Axis itself does not contain any military objectives like London, with its numerous factories and all functions. There is also the fear of bombs accidentally striking Italian City. Because of Italian participation in the war in London, there is a second opinion in Britain which is that Rome's ancient splendor is more sacred than the lives of its women and children. The dominant recognized this cry to protect that it has been suggested.

The whole strategy of something has been to strike at the heart of the matter. It is felt that the military of attacks on either Rome or London would be outwitted by effect of world opinion.

The itself does not contain any of the obvious objectives with its numerous factories and junctions. There is also the possibility of an accidentally stratification.

Because of Italian participation in the war, the British Government of opinion in Britain which that Rome's ancient splendor and its history has been the of women and children. The women recognized this cry to the fact that it has been the House of Commons that it reserves the right to bomb the city of Rome is an open city.

Concerning regarding Paris is not a particularly factor. It contains many factories, of which, it is reported at London, the city of France is a production. But Paris is somewhat in capitals.

The country is a difficult because of its national capital, the Frenchman to the "city of France" it would be the risk of alienating French

While their work is vital to the success of the British drives in Africa, these men have not been quite so busy since the R.A.F. has kept the Italians on the ground. Nevertheless, spotter telescope crews like this must be on the alert at all times. Their job is to keep anti-aircraft gun crews informed of enemy plane movements.
